

Adult Faith Formation

Description: Inspired by the Bishop's invitation "Were not our hearts burning", we created a variety of programs for parishes that are focused on training and facilitating the teachings of the Church for adults. These programs are mostly made up of moments in prayer, videos, reflections and dialogue.

This carefully crafted production of nine videos describing the most surprising moments that converted the old world to the new faith is accompanied by a variety of real-time images recorded in Europe and the Middle East. These are all narrated by the commentaries of 26 historians from around the world.

Catechesis with Pope Francis – We offer the catechesis that the Pope facilitates to his general audience at the Vatican.

Three minute videos that can complement any kind of topic that the facilitator needs for his/her presentation.

The Social Aspect of the Church – Basic course used to deepen one’s knowledge about the Social Doctrine of the Catholic Church, its position in regards to social issues and the moral principles on how to live well.

It is composed of 4 modules, 9 sessions each. It is ideal for the ongoing formation of adult groups at a parish level.

Christians in Society – Keys to Catholic Social Teaching

This series of 9 documentaries vividly illustrates the response of the Church to the challenges facing Christians in today’s complex society.

These pleasant documentaries, edited by Goya Productions, demonstrate that the solutions of those problems that threaten society dwell in the principles, not well-known, but clearly stated by the Catholic Magisterium.
